GORDON—POWELL.

The Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, pastor of the First Christian church of Louisville, has announced his engagement to Dr. Anna M. D. Gordon, who is now sojourning in Philadelphia. The wedding will take place sometime in February in Philadelphia, but the date has not as yet been fixed.

Mrs. Gordon was born in India of English parents and is a graduate of Bombay University, and also of the University of Brussels. For the past twelve years she has been engaged in medical missionary work in India.

Mrs. Gordon is well known to the members of the First Christian church. She visited Louisville for the first time about nine years ago, and was also a visitor here last fall. Mrs. Gordon is a woman of many accomplishments.—Courier Journal.

MRS. SARGENT ASKS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Sargent sued Dr. Andrew Sargent for divorce and alimony a just proportion of his estate, which she says is worth about $25,000. They were married in Christian county in April, 1896. She accuses him of cruelty, wasting of estate, infidelity and drunkenness. She charges him with having attempted through acts of intimidation and bribery to secure witnesses against her who would testify that she was insane in order to put her into the asylum. There are no children. The estate is said to consist of real estate and bank stock. The plaintiff asks for an order restraining the defendant from molesting her or from disposing of his estate and for the restoration of her maiden name of Elizabeth B. Brown.—Courier Journal.

BROWN—BRASHER.

Mr. M. A. Brown, of Crofton, and Miss Effie May Brasher, sister of Mr. John Brasher, of this city, were married at Mr. Brasher's home on South Campbell street late Monday afternoon. Dr. J. W. Lewis performed the ceremony. The bride is a very pretty and popular young lady and has a host of friends in the city. The groom is postmaster at Crofton and is a prominent young business man of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left immediately after the ceremony for Crofton, where they will go to housekeeping.

GREGORY—CAYCE

The marriage of Mr. Lewis N. Gregory and Miss Marian Cayce occurred yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the bride's home, about five miles south of the city. Elder T. D. Moore officiated. The attendants were Emmett Cayce and Miss Mattie Henry Steger and John Hille and Miss Janie Major. The bride is the youngest daughter of the late G. Roy Cayce and the groom is a son of Mr. I. J. Gregory, of the Howell neighborhood. Both young Services Conducted by Dr.

Jenkins, Assisted by Dr.
J. N. Prestridge.

The funeral services preceding the interment of the body of the late Maj. J. O. Ferrell were held at the Baptist church at ten o'clock Tuesday morning.

Many floral offerings attested the love and respect of sorrowing friends.

The pall-bearers were former pupils of Maj. Ferrell as follows: Dr. H. H. Wallace, Chas. M. Meacham, Moses L. Elb, Ross A. Rogers, W. S. Davison, H. D. Wallace, George E. Gary, W. A. Glass, R. S. Green, R. M. Fairleigh, R. C. Gary, R. M. Woodriddle, Upshaw Woodriddle, A. W. Wood, W. T. Cooper, J. C. Buckner, Ira L. Smith, E. C. Radford.

Ned Meriwether Bivouac, U. C. V., also sent a detail under Commander Nat Gaither, consisting of Veterans M. H. Nelson, W. P. Winfree, J. P. Braden, Darwin Bell, Geo. T. Herndon, C. F. Jarrett, M. H. Carroll and W. H. Cox.

After a song, "Nearer My God to Thee," Dr. Millard A. Jenkins read a chapter and made brief and appropriate remarks. "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was then sung, and Dr. J. N. Prestridge, a former pastor, discussed the personal side of Maj. Ferrell's character and the success he attained in teaching and training young men for lives of usefulness. His remarks were a touching and beautiful tribute to the life work of the noble and godly man who had passed away.

The last song was "Rock of Ages" and the cortege proceeded to Riverside cemetery, where the body was laid to rest in a sealed grave in section O, of the new cemetery.

The new made grave was covered with the floral offerings from those who will ever honor the memory of the brave old soldier and faithful teacher, who for fifty years sought to instill into his pupils his own inflexible ideas of honor, his unswerving sense of duty and unyielding strength of will power in adhering to the right.

A movement has already been started for an organization of his former pupils to be known as "Maj. Ferrell's Boys." One object in view will be to unite in paying tribute in some lasting way to the virtues and achievements of one whose work was one of the strongest and most positive influences for good ever known in Hopkinsville.

BOARD OF CONTROL

First District Favors Judge
A. J. G. Wells.

Paducah, Ky., Dec. 22.—The First district is aroused over the statement in the Courier-Journal that the appointment to the State Board of Control lies between Judge A. J. G. Wells, of Murray, and three physicians in the Fourth district. Republicans and Democrats feel that, all things being equal, the First district is entitled to preference over the Fourth in this instance. This sentiment is partly due to the politicians' belief that the Fourth district is getting more than its share of the plums; and to the popularity of Judge Wells among the people of the Purchase.

KELLY CASES COMPROMISED

Bondsmen Settle On a Basis of Eighty-five Per Cent. of Shortage.

SUM OF $7,000 PAID.

Personal Bondsmen On First
Bond Pay 40 Per Cent—
Prosecution May Drop.

The civil suits against the bondsmen of John W. Kelly, defaulting master commissioner of Trig county, were compromised at Cadiz last week and settled in advance of the court trial, with Judge J. C. Sims on the bench.

The entire amount of the shortage was $8,200 and the plaintiffs agreed to discount the claims $1,200. Of the $7,000 paid, the bonding company having the risk at the time the defalcation came to light paid $1,200, and the bondsmen on the personal bond given when Kelly assumed the office about ten years ago paid $2,800. There were eight of these bondsmen, one of them a prominent merchant of this city. The bonding company agreed to withdraw from the prosecution of the criminal cases against Kelly, not yet tried.

As the law under which he was indicted was not passed until 1902, the settlement is understood to be a bar to a successful prosecution of the criminal cases, as the defalcation probably occurred before that time.

A scandal growing out of the lending of some of the money, was an issue in the race for circuit judge in 1900.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 23.—Gov. Willson has appointed five Trustees of the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley for a term of six years, beginning the first Tuesday in April, 1909. They are Maj. P. P. Johnston, Lexington; Col. J. W. Alcorn, Stanford; Maj. John H. Leathers, Louisville; Capt. Robert Hurd, Bowling Green, and A. W. Macklin, Frankfort. Ambiguity in the law has delayed the appointments, but the Governor consulted with the Attorney General, and decided to make them for the term specified.
